THE WASHINGTON HERALD

PUBLICATION OFFICE

784 FIFTEENTH STREET NORTHWEST.

Published Every Morning in the Year by THE WASHINGTON HERALD COMPANY, Under the Direction of

SCOTT C. BONE. . . . . . . Editor HENRY L. WEST. . . . . Business Manager Telephone Main 3300. (Private Branch Exchange.)

Subscription Rates by Carrier. Daily and Sunday Daily and Sunday .... Subscription Rates by Mail.

Daily and Sunday. Daily, without Sunday, ......$4.80 per year Daily, without Sunday .... .....$2.00 per year analysis:

No attention will be paid to anonymous name of the writer,

THE WASHINGTON HERALD.

BPECIAL AGENCY, Brunswick Building. Chicago Representative, BARNARD & BRAN-MAM, Boyce Building.

FRIDAY, JUNE 17, 1910.

Home News Away from Home

Washingtonians who leave the city, either for a short or long stay-whether they go to mountain or seashore, or even across the sea -should not fail to order The Washington Herald sent to them by mail. It will come regularly, and the addresses will be changed as often as desired. It is the home news you will want while away from home. Telephone Main 3300, giving old and new address.

Chancellor Day Again.

Is it not curious how often well-meanfail to have serious consequences upon we use the telephone to expedite business we are in danger of growing lazy.

Surely Chancellor Day must recognize Surely Chancellor Day must recognize splendid progress of late years dwells in the South's splendid progress of late years dwells in the South's splendid progress of late years dwells in the South's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splendid progress of late years dwells in the south's splen than a luxury. When he notes the huge merchants in the streets, he must recognize that the auto has a utilitarian value. machines. These things are, primarily, chant ship, and then the modern steamer; much better than straggle. from the modest auto first designed for has been, and is to be, of wast use to the signed it by the Department of Comcountry. Already the auto has robbed merce and Labor. country life of much of its terrors; the Some ancient philosopher remarked, auto not only hauls the farmer and his its engine grinds his corn and pumps his fancy. T. R. is coming home to-morrow. water. Only the other day there was a long account in the press of an automobile plow that, at a cost of $4 a day, the Bible does not say that it is absowill plow thirty acres; and, after all, we lutely impossible for a rich man to pass other, or imagines for an instant that joy." However, some of the other auther and the last may be had for the price of thors of "In After Days" do not agree are only just at the beginning of the through the eye of a needle.

Chancellor Day thinks the vast capital invested in the automobile trade is un-per day," observes the Chattanooga Times. they must be mastered lest one incur productive but a moment's thought will. The privates, presumably, are supposed productive, but a moment's thought will The privates, presumably, are supposed convince any one to the contrary. It has to be satisfied with merely getting killed. given work to thousands; it has influ- A Georgia barber threatens to run for enced the building trade in the factories governor against "Little Joe" Brown. kinds-Melba, Nordica, and Gadski-conrequired; it has stimulated trade in rub- This effort to make an issue of "Little taining respectively peaches, rasperries, ber, in leather, in steel, in copper, in a Joe's" whiskers will not work; his pe- and strawberries. In a deep, round dish hundred different branches. Chancellor culiar style of personal beauty is one the mixer puts some of the fruit; this Day will have to revise his text if he of his big assets with the common peohopes successfully to inveigh against ple. national extravagance.

Assumed Names in the Army.

The House of Representatives has passed a bill which, on first impression, seems to be a peculiar form of legislative "relief," it being that which authorizes the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy to issue certificates how, the Senator's political enemies inof discharge in the true names of persons variably seem to go at him exactly backwho enlisted or served under assumed ward. names during the civil war and the war with Spain. It is disclosed that there are many people who served in these two wars in the military and naval forces old oyster to open. He may, nevertheless, with entire credit to themselves, and console himself with one reflection: who rendered such service under names Everybody wishes him well. which they adopted. On the face of it, this situation seems to be explained only on the ground that a man who adopts an assumed name must do so for reasons which are not entirely to his credit. It appears, however, that a considerable foreign birth and had names difficult of which-is-the-better-play, "East Lynne" or pronunciation, and they feared their birth or descent was likely to cause feelings of prejudice or resentment among their comrades. It has been stated to the House that the number of the colonel around Europe, that would people who served under these circum- have been about all he would have heard stances "reaches into thousands"-alto- there, too. gether a surprising state of affairs. By the enactment of this legislation it will become unnecessary to introduce special bills in individual cases. It would seem that if there is any necessity for this form of relief there could very well be legislation which con- be tempted, beyond resistance, to indulge fers the authority upon the Secretary of in a little craning of the neck to-day, War and the Secretary of the Navy, with even if it were not a woman. the provision, of course, that these officials may issue the discharges upon proof of identity and after a knowledge of the Entered at the post-office at Washington, D. C., in the military-naval service should do prosperity. so under an assumed name; and cernot fully explain or justify the condition. haps.

The Southward Swing.

Figures, usually, are dull and uninter- move. esting things, but the following are so ....$6,00 per year significant and impressive that they are "Comparing the exports of 1899 and 1909, it is found that those from Gulf ports contributions, and no communications to have increased 110 per cent in the ten the editor will be printed except over the years. The exports from Atlantic ports ame of the writer. increased only 12 per cent during the from Manuscripts offered for publication will same period. Of the seventeen Atlantic other. be returned if unavailable, but stamps should be sent with the manuscript for that purpose.

Southern ports. The greatest increase in communications intended for this exports made by any one of the seven Sunday issue, should be addressed to THE WASHINGTON HERALD.

Was $26,870,684, at Savannah, Ga., showing a growth of more than ill per cent over 1899. The greatest proportionate increase was made by St. Johns, Fla. (the district per cent, and Brunswick, Ga., 42 per cent. Another matter worthy of cheerful consideration is that whereas in 1899 the ex-22 per cent of the exports from Atlantic ports, in 1909 they equaled 41 per cent. prove a closer touch of Southern ports with the commerce of the world; for per cent.

"The total commerce of the South Atlantic ports now overtop total imports and exports at Boston or at Philadelphia. Washington was at the foot of the base-The Gulf ports exceed by $100,000,000 the ball percentage table that Washington total imports and exports of all North Atlantic ports except New York; the Gulf imports and exports now equal 331-3 per cent of the total imports and exports

In the year 1909 the domestic exports biggest noise ever. of the United States show that cotton, unmanufactured, alone represented 25.48 per cent of the total; which is more than two and a half times the value of the next most important export, viz., meat and dairy products."

In the light of these statistics, it is ing men in their desire to make a point not at all astonishing that confidence in indulge in extravagances of speech? Here the South's future should be so firm and is Chancellor Day, of Syracuse, dis- so universal. If these conditions prevail From the Toledo Elade. tressed because the people of the United now, what may we not expect to happen Ty Cobb. He hopes to be able to meet Hans Wag-States have invested some $500,000,000 in in Dixle once the Panama Canal is ner before his term expires. the automobile trade. He condemns the opened to the commerce of the world? the automobile trade. He condemns the auto as a luxury and thinks that such Absolute commercial supremacy in the From the Philadelphia Public Ledger. rampant and vulgar prodigality cannot nation is no idle dream down that way; absolute commercial supremacy on earth Democratic nomination for governor of Pennsylvania aims. If she be one of duly imagination, may not irrationally peep above the hori- can be figured out better after awhile. Surely this is a short-sighted view for zon of Dixie's hopes!

the head of a great university. One might as well argue that the luxury of to appreciate the tremendous things going I menopoly Needs Training.

Henopoly Needs Training.

From the Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Judge Grosscup's idea scems to be that, while travel made possible by invention would on in the South, the South itself had render the nation effete; or that because come to appreciate them, and had learned delivery wagons that do the work of our portance of keeping its wealth at home to as great an extent as possible. It no longer goes abroad to buy the greater There was a time when a cry was raised bulk of its necessities, to borrow money, against carriages, and against railroads, to get its manufactured products. It has just as to-day there is being made mani- developed from a purely agricultural sec- From the Chicago Record-Herald. fest some fear and criticism of flying tion into a mercantile, manufacturing, banking, life and fire insurance section, only signs of progress. From the pleas- and it is striding forward in seven-league ure sailing vessel came the clipper mer- boots now, where once it did nothing

The South has every reason to congratpleasure has come an implement that ulate itself on the business status as-

"To-morrow never comes." To-morrow for a soda or a phosphate, but now these product to market, but in many instances is one to-morrow that will come, we things have been relegated to the back-

> "Can an auctioneer of horses he honest?" inquires the Chicago Post. Well,

In discussing "Ideals" before a graduating class recently, Gov. Marshall mentioned only Alexander, Caesar, Washington, and Napoleon. Query: Is Gov. Marshall a mollycoddle, an Ananias, or a weakling?

"I will not resign to oblige my political enemies," avers Senator Tillman. Some-

Unless the tightwads around this town loosen up, how can they expect the safe and sane Fourth of July quarantine against tetanus germs to be effective?

We have a magnificent nerve, all right, number of those in this class were of but we decline to participate in that looked a little loose change "Uncle Tom's Cabin?" argument.

> A traveler recently in Ceylon says, "All I could hear there was 'rubber, rubber, rubber!" If this traveler had followed > President Diaz's method is not altogether commendable, but it is, at least, picturesque and effective. He puts all the opposition candidates in jail.

The Statue of Liberty probably would est and Dest of Southern journalists, has innocence in the assumption of fictitious names. The legislation places the responsibility where it may very well be intrusted, and the more so if these men. intrusted, and the more so if these men man to have all together at one time.

who unwittingly served under assumed The Ledger's success has been remarknames are deprived of privileges to which able, even considering the fourteen years they are justly entitled. It remains a of conscientious work put into it. We situation calculated to excite remark, at the same time, why a man who enlists Hiden—continued and ever-increasing

The Hon. "Jeff" Davis once more is on tainly the excuse which has been given the Senatorial job. Hurried back to be for the thousands of such cases does on hand in time for adjournment, per-

The war of words between San Francisco and New Orleans is becoming so Southern commercial bodies are felici- fierce that we again arise, in the interest tating themselves, and righteously, on of national peace, to suggest that the the remarkable showing made by Dixle big exposition be awarded to a city with in the Annual Review of Foreign Com- a good American name like Washington!

Senator Dolliver must be given credit for realizing, moreover, that it was his

If at first, second, third, fourth, and Man, guess guess again, of course!

> Speaking of vaudeville turns, the Treasury Department's announcement that "small bills are scarce" got a good laugh from the country, from one end to the > Inasmuch as Mr. Bryan has not yet handed Mr. Folk a lemon, Mr. Folk probably would be wise to call in his Presidential boom and announce for justice of the peace.

"I fight merely because public opinion New York Representative, J. C. WILBERDING of Jacksonville), which showed an increase of over 700 per cent. The other forces me to," says Prof. Jeffries. If he noteworthy increases were Wilmington, wins, however, Prof. Jeffries will not en-N. C., 170 per cent; Fernandina, Fla., 102 dow an orphan asylum with the money.

> Take Alabama, for instance; it is the first State on the roll. Why is it not ports from the Gulf ports equaled only kicking about the rivers and harbors bill? Answer: Because it is in on the thing to The import figures for the ten years the extent of some $2,500,000. Q. E. D. New York to San Francisco by air-while Atlantic ports increased in the ship? Sure! The aviators cannot exten years 76 per cent, Gulf ports increased pect us to affect astonishment at the suggestion! It has been such a long time since > has quite forgotten how it feels Nicaragua reminds one of a July fly.

Considering its size, it makes about the

CHAT OF THE FORUM.

Who Knows? From the St. Louis Republic We wonder whether Mr. Taft has engaged his tion. The heroine, Philippa, is a lovable

Among Men of Mark

Just how much sacrifice is involved in declining

Monopoly Needs Training. Judge Grosscup's idea seems to be that, while story is good enough to have come from monopoly is a swipe and must remain so, it may be the pen of Louise Alcott. It shows that trained not to feed with all four feet in the trough. the author knows girls and knows what Sympathetic Congressmen, From the Philadelphia North Americ Quite a number of Congressmen are prepared to with the man who hung by his teeth girl, to enjoy it.

over Niagara Falls for forty-five minutes. A Supreme Court's Wisdom. The Supreme Court of Kansas has decided that it is the duty of pedestrians to dodge automobiles. might be said that it is also safer for pedestrian

LATEST STYLES IN DRINKS.

to dodge automobiles,

Characteristics of Different Beverages Must Be Mastered.

manuscript "The Power and the Glory" in the hands of her publishers, Double-From the New York Tribune. Styles in soda fountain drinks change as do those in clothes and etiquette. by A. I. Keller. Mrs. Cooke is now in There was a time when one asked either California. ground and have been replaced by the losophy of death in a calm but not at all uncheerful way. "If death is treated as "sundae," the "frappe," the "pouffe," an incident-separation as an episode, rethe "coupe," or the "parfait." If one doesn't know the one from th the first, one is far behind the times. with this. "Generals in Madriz's army get 1.6 cents The differences may seem slight, but The seventh volume of the "New

The "coupe" is perhaps the most won-derful of all. In fact, it is so wonderful that it may be called only by the name of famous opera stars. There are three he covers with ice cream and over the whole he pours the thickest, and the From Zion's Herald. richest of the fruit syrups. If the beverages themselves do not change from season to season, then gen, is proving exceptionally attractive their names and titles must respond to to tourists. It is the longest mountain the whims of Dame Fashion. Once upon railway in Europe, and has no fewer than a time a cherry sundae was a Merry 177 tunnels, one of which cost $800,000 and Now it is a Chantecler. chocolate nut sundae was called Sagi mountain railways, which merely go to Harins for a while, then Alice Roosevelt, and now the Jungle-the compil- the edge of the snow and ice, this line, ment having been shifted from daugh- after passing Finsen-a station whose ter to parent. Whenever a play makes a big hit or a as well known as that of any favorite reman does a big thing the soda clerks are sort in Switzerland—proceeds across the among the first to make use of the snow field for a long distance. Two snow The self-confident and impressive young frappe and a North Pole sundae. They as June, and there are lakes along the graduate is going to find, of course, that invented a Taft soda and a Peter Pan route which do not lose their ice until the world is, after all, a pretty tough phosphate. They can't afford to lose August, and in some years do not thaw any opportunity or to let any other shop at all. Snowsheds have been constructed iness get ahead of them. So they with shutters on their sides, which can be spend what spare minutes they have opened in summer to permit an unob-in inventing new things and new names structed view of the magnificent landfor old things.

Idle Investigations.

From the Detroit Free Press. Every married woman secretly goes through her husband's old trousers' pockets just to make sure that he hasn't over-Gross Carelessness From the Chicago Record-Herald. "She had a fever and lost all her hair." "Poor thing! She ought to have locked it up before going to the hospital.'

I'd Be a Butterfly. f'd be a butterfly, living a rover. Where roses and lilles and violets meet; Where roses and lilies and violets meet;
Roving forever from flower to flower,
Kissing all buds that are pretty and sweet.
I'd never languish for wealth or for power,
I'd never sigh to see slaves at my feet;
I'd be a butterfly born in a bower.
Kissing all buds that are pretty and sweet.
Oh! could I piffer the wand of a fairy,
I'd have a pair of those beautiful wings.
Their summer day's ramble is sportive and airy,
They sleep in a rose when the nightingale sings.
Those who have wealth must be watchful and wary,
Power, alas! naught but misery brings;

They sleep in a rose when the nightingale sings.

They sleep in a rose when the nightingale sings.

Those who have wealth must be watchful and wary.

Power, alas! naught but misery brings;
I'd be a butterfly sportive and airy.

Rocked in a rose when the nightingale sings.

What though you tell me each gay little rover

Shrinks from the breath of the first autumn day,

Smelly 'the better, when summer is over

Dying when fair things are fading away.

Thomas Haynes Bayly.

THE OBSERVER.

Charlie Gaston wanted me to read the opening of a novel he has just started to write. It began, "Dearest," said the girl-bride, as she nestled her young face against the bristly beard of her new, but old husband. "I've been thinking." "Thinking of what, dear?" said Brodie, gently. "Why, honey; now that I'm married,

I expect I'll have to pay full fare on the street cars, won't I?" I gave the MSS back to him then; I couldn't read any more if it.

There's a lot of freak legislation in Kansas, but, at least, they have the courage of their convictions out there, and now they're going to make the express companies lower their excessive rates or get out. Bully for Kansas!

offered higher salaries to go and preach elsewhere. A Chicago news-paper says: "It is becoming generally recognized that Chicago is a splendid training ground for preachers." even the best of them hardly make an impression on the place. The Hon. C. E. Townsend, of Michi-

Several Chicago preachers have been gan, spoke in his home town recently, and urged that only good men should be elected to office. Incidentally, he suggested himself for the Senate. They are cleaning up the office; have bought some new shears and a pastepot, and have put new cushions on the editorial chair at The Outlook.

The editor's on his way. Of course, there had to be explanations. Prof. Frederick Starr, of the University of Chicago, is first in the field. He says that when he predicted dire things for T. R., he thought the colonel was going into the haunts of the tse-tse fly. I don't know how to pronounce it-but Tse-Tse!

And the census has settled the question at last. Lillian Russell is fifty

DAILY BOOK REVIEW.

"PHILIPPA AT HALCYON."

The spirit of femininity in its budding time, the breath of youth and freshness is in "Philippa at Halcyon," by Katherine

Holland Brown. The story all takes place at College Hill, a school for girls, and embraces a series of incidents such as are likely to happen at such an institu-young person, perhaps a little too near perfection to be real, but it is best to be optimistic and hope that she is genuine

This is a book that should find a place upon the reading table of every school and college girl. If she be a girl of inventive mind, she will recognize in the adventures of the girls at College Hill a reflection of her own experiences per-they do, not only at college, but at home, nature and sound philosophy, as well as amusement of an innocent nature, to interest all classes. (New York: Charles

Notes of the Books.

When the editor of the Bookman was asked the other day to name the leading American novelists, he replied that there were only two-William D. Howells and Grace MacGowan Cooke has placed her

Elizabeth Stuart Phelps, in the new union as a prospect-grief can be borne Schaff-Herzog Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge" has just made its appearance from the presses of the publishers,

the Funk & Wagnalls Company. A volume every three months has been issued.

plete this twelve-volume work. The pres-

Scenic Railway in Norway,

The new scenic railway in Norway, recently completed from Christiania to Ber-took twelve years to build. Unlike other name in a year or two is sure to become scapes. An international ski tournament is to be held in Finsen in midsummer.

This mixture of wintry experiences with summer touring is a novelty sure to attract to Norway an increasing number of

A Sure Sign.

"My dear, the boys have been begging me to play poker with them again; won't you let me?" he begged.

"Not much," she answered. "No one but an easy mark is so popular with State Secrets.

Bobby-There's visitors in th' front

THEIR ANNIVERSARY.

DARBY. The ocean roars his greeting to the land, The river sings hers to the sea; But silent, thou, who by thy gracious hand Hast bound my deathless love to thee!

-Holdup Stevens, in the Portland Observe Yosemite Valley, April 29, 1910, JOAN. "

enterprising travelers.

From the Buffalo Express.

From the Cleveland Leader.

Polly-How d' you know?

Bobby-Ma's callin' pa "dear" time she speaks to him.

The ocean rushes to the land To spend himself on cliff or sand;

The river rushes to the sea-

I rush to thee!

poker players.

subject "Moralities."

ent volume brings the work down to the ok "In After Days," sums up her phi-

I wonder what has become of Mr. Adair's bill proposing to put the salaries of Congressmen back to $5, 000? It's curious how measures like that just will get mislaid.

Because his wife insisted on being a Christian Science healer, a man in Kansas City got mad and insisted on a divorce. He belonged to the Methodist Episcopal Church, and his friends said there was Methodism in his mad-

No, the Gov. Gillett who stopped the fight is not the "safety" man. The letter "B" which the Indiana farmers have found on their oats, probably does not mean Bryan at all, but Beveridge. . . . .

Those United Wireless folks must think this is a curious sort of government. It won't even et people pretend to be prosperous, these hard Starett is the name of the saddle-horse the President rides. It stands

16 hands high and weighs 1,280 pounds.

Even then, it knows that it has been working when President Taft rides out with Gen. Clarence Edwards and the Washington Riding Club.

And they won't even let you getrich-quick via wireless, will they?

It is up to some one now to write a learned essay on "The relation of aviation to moral conduct." If we are constantly required to keep looking up in the clouds to watch the manbirds go by, we shall soon become more erect as a nation, and as individuals shall all hold our heads up more defiantly.

Saturday, June 18, is to be a memorable day. It is the anniversary of the battle of Waterloo; it is on that day the Ballinger-Pinchot verdict comes down, and, last but not least,

A LITTLE NONSENSE.

A POEM OF PURPOSE. A poem should have purpose, And those who poems write Should early learn

To ever spurn
The futile and the trite. A poem should have purpose Or its effects are nil.

I wrote this lay To help me pay An irate grocer's bill. Not True to Life.

"Realism on the stage? There is such thing." "How now?"

Act II, and yet they have the same cook." The Strategie Point. "How came you to start a revolution Philippa will inflame it. And no girl will with only three men?" demanded the do hadly who copies this wholesome and sincere, friendly and capable heroine. The "It was this way," explained the leader.

"My peach tree has developed a small book a prime favorite. Indeed, one need not be a school girl, or even an ex-school Often Happens.

A statesman first wooes Fame; But then may fickle be And jilt poor Fame, his early flame, To court an inquiry.

The Latest Role. "Why do you save those old rubber shoes?

"They are for hungry arctic explorers, replied Mrs. Housekeep. "Been a good many of 'em along this route." Made Over.

"Plays, it is said, are not written; they re re-written. "I know it is that way with jokes."

day, Page & Co., who will publish the book on August 1. It will be illustrated Bad Symptoms. "He pays me a great deal of deference." dmitted the girl's father.
"Yet you seem dissatisfied."

"Yes; I'm afraid that he won't be able to pay no board."

A Tongue Twithter Thimplified. From Life. Some of those tongue twisters are really very hard to enunciate, for 'The sea ceaseth, and it sufficeth

"That'th eathily thaid," lithpingly thmiled Mithat Elithabeth. "You thimply thay it tho: 'The thea theatheth, and be?' it thuffitheth uth.'" effort to get the salary of James F. Ed-May 12, 1879, and has served on the door even the most strenuous Republican exwith twenty-two men of both political press any real hope in the outcome."

parties. He is seventy-three years old. Mr. Lamb will leave to-day for New parties. He is seventy-three years old. Mr. Lamb will leave to-day for New He was a colonel in a Confederate regiment, and was also one of the forty-"Col. Jimmy" had a stanch friend in Senator Vest, and was complimented by name by that eminent states- Coast, it exists only in the minds of man in a report on the investigation of some American yellow papers and dethe beef trust in the early '80's. He served signing politicians. It certainly never big guns of the beef trust after all others had failed to accomplish that dimentificat. Senator Depew also came under the "colonel's" ban. The Senator came to Washington on business, and the by his father, Chozo Toyama. Mr. Toyama, jr., speaks excellent English, and watchful "colonel" served the papers on having attended Columbia University and senger to the Committee on Foreign Reations for ten years, serving under States studying business ideas. Windom, Miller, and John Sherman. He of the fact that it was due to an Ameriis one of the landmarks of the Senate, and is pointed out as such by the guides to the many visitors who swarm the corridors of the Capitol daily.

Both sides of Congress are pushing hings along at a lively rate. In the signs on America? If we do entertain Senate a big hole was made yesterday designs, they are those of friendship, in the bills on the calendar, almost every Senator getting some measure for in its power to cultivate American good which he stood sponsor passed by that will. body. Even Senator Jeff Davis got busy and had a bill passed.

Representative Tawney, holding the commerce, and invite Americans to come floor of the House on a pending measure, is generous to the statesmen and near statesmen of that body. He graciously be accorded the right to visit America. yielded, first to one and then to the others, the privilege of making remarks, and study your ways. It is wrong from an ethica! wiewpoint, to exclude my an ethica! viewpoint, to exclude my countrymen from the United States because they cause they cause they cause they cause we are a exist at less cost is because we are a pation of veretarians, while you americant.

"How now?"

"Six months elapse between Act I and act II, and yet they have the same cook."

The Strategic Point.

"Six months elapse between Act I and lawful money of the United States. It appears from receipted vouchers on file that the board of public works did not pay him "In lawful money of the United States." but "In the world, the ivory trade was of small lawful money of the United States." but "It was this way," explained the leader.
"We found the operator asleep and couldn't resist the temptation to seize the cable office."

Information Wanted.

"I wish I could get hold of one of these in the cable of the capture of the bill has already passed the Senate sev- to learn the art."

plishments of the girls of Halcyon household, there is much material to make the green knob that looks as if it might be a ORIGIN OF "HOBSON'S CHOICE." who is at the New Willard, said last

Familiar Phrase Is Traced Back to the Seventeenth Century. From the Strand Magazine, a phrase that is used by many people of the unsatisfactory course events have without knowing exactly what it means, taken under the guidance of President As a matter of fact, this adage has been | Taft. handed down to us from the seven-teenth century and had its origin in the eccentricities of one Tobias Hobson. worthy was a carrier of Cambridge, who died in the year 1630. In addition to his ordinary business he kept a stable and let out homes to the students at the tirety.' made it an unalterable rule, however, that each animal should to select the steed they most fancied, his customers had to take the one that Senate. stood next to the door. If it did not meet with their approval they had to do pression, "Hobson's choice," used to signify, a choice without an alternative.

without a ride. Hence the proverbial ex-

Makes No Difference From the Buffalo Express, "Do you think it will rain on our pi nic day?"

"Yes. "Do you know when the picnic is

TO-DAY IN HISTORY.

Bunker Hill Day-June 17.

struggling up the hill, untrained in war-fare but loyal to the core. Think of the The first volley of the Americans, at this nerve of 'em—only about 2,500 ill-armed, undisciplined Yankees, climbing up back ranks as before. But as the assailants of barriers of earth heaps and piles of neared the crest of the hill they noted his shirtsleeves he strode up and down a valiant stand. Scores of them were the lines giving words of encouragement cut down, until Gen. Prescott, the com-heir eyes! And to this he added: "Powder is aim at the handsome coats-pick off the employed in throwing up embankments, he said simply:

They toiled on faithfully till break of day
"My orders w revealed their work to the gaze of the as- took it." tonished British. The English guns were soon trained on the works and the sleeping city was awakened by the boom of They worked on, however, and by noon they were well intrenched be-hind a strong redoubt. The British meanwhile decided to storm the American Gen. Howe was at their head undaunted courage. Not a shot was Washington was chosen cor hay, realizing that on the plain below the slackening of the American fire and was a red-coat army fully 5,000 strong, well-armed, well-drilled, and well-bayonet. The Americans were without which has a life and health endangering Leading them to the struggle was the gallant and dashing Israel Putnam. In this shirtsleeves he strode up and down a valuant stand. Score of the struggle was the gallant at the struggle was the clubbed muskets and stones they made the struggle was the clubbed muskets and stones they made the struggle was the struggle was the clubbed muskets and stones they made the struggle was the clubbed muskets and stones they made the struggle was the strug to the right and left and whispering his mander, seeing the folly of the struggle, famous order:

"Don't fire until you see the whites of left and whispering his mander, seeing the folly of the struggle, ordered a retreat, and the British were curious custom prevails at an Edinburgh "Don't fire until you see the whites of left in possession of the field.

The victory won at Bunker Hill was a

He is said to have added: "Three and it was about 3 o'clock in the after-noon when they began the ascent of the hill. Up they marched in line of battle Up they marched in line of battle at its dedication in 1842. On June 17, 1775, fired from the top of the hill. The Amer- chief of the army. It is the date in 1860 that cans were coolly taking Putnam's advice. Lincoln was nominated for President. When the British had come within a few rods a flame of fire swept along the shanks), of England (1239); John Wesley, American lines and the front rank of the eloquent preacher (1703); Abel Parenemy were cut to pieces. Another vol- ker Upshur, Secretary of the Navy and take a walk before he is allowed to have ley followed and another, until the British fell back in disorder, leaving the hill-top strewn with dead and wounded. In fifteen minutes they made another dash, June 17, 1719; Henrietta Sontag, the fa- From the Buffalo Express, fire as no army, however brave, could statesman and Secretary of State under your hall all night?" Buchanan, in 1866.

AT THE HOTELS.

Hon. John E. Lamb, of Terre Haute, Ind., who led the successful fight in the recent Democratic State convention for the nomination of a candidate to oppose Senator Beveridge, and which resulted in the choice of Hon. John W. Kern, is at the New Willard.

Senator Stone is making a determined cratic largely in November. Our party wards, the doorkeeper at the west Senate door raised from $1.440 to $1.800 Mr.

Its action on the Senatorship strengthate door, raised from $1,440 to $1,800. Mr. ened it immeasurably. On the other Edwards, known to statesmen and visit- hand, the Republican party is hopelessly ors to the Capitol as "Col. Jimmy," has split. Senator Beveridge's defeat is a held the position of doorkeeper since foregone conclusion. One rarely hears

"If there exists any such thing as a Japanese invasion scare on the Pacific subpoenas on Armour, Swift, and the existed in the mind of the Japanese government or the people of my country," having spent some years in the United

"The Japanese people are always aware can, Admiral Perry, that their country was opened up to the world, and that from that moment dates our national existence. Before then we were practically unknown outside of our own home circle. Why should we entertain deand our government is doing everything

"We are furnishing practical proof of our intention and wishes. We opened up Japan to American trade and for a speech, the laughter gave way to hoots and guffaws. It was all good natured, however, and the good humor of the rousing get-away day pervaded the whole atmosphere.

them to live comfortably in Japan." The Senate passed a bill yesterday for the relief of Mrs. Julia L. Hall. Mrs. Japan. Speaking of that art, he said, last Hall is the widow of Capt. Joseph T. H. night that Prof. Ishikawa, who is at the Hall. Capt. Hall, in 1872, made a con-tract with the District of Columbia to the Imperial School of Art, is the greatfurnish macadam stone for the extension est and best known expert in that line. of certain streets in Washington. Under "We obtain our supply of elephant tusks the terms of the contract Capt. Hall was from Africa, Siam, China, and other required to pay his workmen in cash countries. We use only genuine ivory current, and the board of public works in our output. Walrus tusks are used in lawful money of the United States," but figures. But since we are dealing with nstead he was compelled to accept cer- all the world, the art has grown in every tificates issued by the board. It also appears from a deposition that the certificates issued to him were not worth their months to finish a good piece. The work face value. Capt. Hall had to raise cash is farmed out to the various ivory carv-

night that the administration of President Taft is not regarded by Indiana Republicans, so far as he knew, as a successful one; that there is great dis appointment among the rank and file of "It is a case of Hobson's choice," is the Republican party in Indiana because "There is one man who could be re nominated and re-elected if he would only say the word," said Mr. Ferguson, "and that man is Teddy Roosevelt. He is the idol of our people, and they indorse his views and acts in their en-

Speaking of Mr. Kern, who was indorsed for United States Senator by the Inhave an equal period of work and rest, diana Democratic convention, Mr. Ferguand would never let one out of its turn, son said that he had lost considerable Consequently, instead of being allowed prestige, and that even his own party is not too anxious to see him elected to the The prize fight between Jeffries and Johnson ought to be stopped by all means, according to Prof. O. F. Sillig, of Lausanne, Switzerland, who was seen at the Shoreham last night. Prof. Sillig is a scientist and is particularly interested in "Prize fighting of any kind is bestial and brutal," said Prof. Sillig, "and should be made impossible by the national law-makers, as well as the various State legislatures. It is a remnant of the bar-baric ages and demoralizes the people. The very fact that it is permitted to take place gives it the stamp of official approval. In other words, the authorities say that prize fighting benefits the pub-The United States has always made the claim that it is in the lead of other nations so far as humane legislation is concerned, and yet it permits dog fights, cock fights, bull fights, prize fights, football, and other brutal exhibitions to take place within its borders, and with the knowledge and approval of the authorities. If it is the popular belief that This is Bunker Hill Day. What giorious memories it recalls, when we revert could rally for the third attack. They fighters are neither physical nor moral fighters are neither physical nor moral This so-called sport claims more

> Jerry H. Johnson, of Terre Haute, Ind., who is at the Raleigh, after an extensive hotel. "Whenever a customer is heard to scarce, boys, and it must not be wasted.

When you see the whites of their eyes at his mercy. He might have slaughtered in a box on the bar counter. It is not a matter for surprise that the landlord in the landlord i them by the hundred. Instead, to his hears much less bad language than some the low, take aim at their waistbands—im at the handsome coats—pick off the commanders."

All night of the 16th the Yankees were
When he was later blamed for this

The low the hundred. Instead, to his fellow-publicans in the capital of Scotland. It would be a good idea to adopt this custom in some of a quaint idea. "My orders were to take the hill. I for providing funds for picnics and social in this city. I know of a quaint idea evenings that is practiced at one of these more such 'victories' will drive the British out of American' Bunker Hill taught tonier cans to the table before drinking. If he fails to do so he is fined one penny. Any one who The corner stone of the Bunker Hill fully accuses another of breaking this unique rule is also fined. The money thus obtained provides funds for many enjoyable meetings and pleasant evenings in a year.

Americans a lesson that are like the such that Americans a lesson that spelled "Liber-ty."

"At another hotel," added Mr. Johnson "known as the 'Old Hundred,' a cus-

Getting His Money's Worth.

only to receive again such a murderous mous singer, in 1854, and Lewis Cass, "Why do you keep the gas burning in "To keep up with the bill, of course."